

Top Military Band Schedules Concert

The NORAD band will cast a pre-homecoming shadow when they appear in concert in the Smith Fieldhouse on Wednesday at 8:15 p.m. There will be no charge for this concert and the public is invited.

The NORAD band is made up of top musicians from the U.S. Army, Navy, Air Force and the Canadian Armed forces.

The members of this band have blended together some of the best sounds possible. They are one of the nation's few surviving units that feature the big band sound.

Under the direction of USAF Major Victor J. Molzer, this multi-service band has introduced a new concept in military music. They feature a command and control band and the ever popular Dixieland group—the Dixies. The 75 musicians on tour so present a pops concert band which features individual performers and provides a showcase for the virtuosity of the whole band.

MILITARY AND TRAVEL

Although the NORAD band's primary duty is to perform at military ceremonies and greet dignitaries at the headquarters in Colorado Springs, Colo., they still travel extensively. They have appeared at the Canadian National Exhibition, Disneyland, New York world fair, and the Canadian Expo 67. They have also appeared on radio and television programs.

QUALIFIED

Major Molzer, the band director, has attended seven universities and performed with the New Orleans Little Symphony, the Denver Municipal Band and the Denver Symphony. For ten years he was assistant chief and executive officer of Air Force bands and formerly was director of the Air Force Band of the Pacific and Command Band Director, Pacific Air Force. The band has toured most of North and Central America and appeared at Carnegie Hall, Hollywood Bowl and World Boy Scout Ambrose.

Queen To Be Crowned Today

Homecoming Assemblies Bring Friday Class Switch

Last year's queen, Afton Young, will place the coronet on the new queen's head to climax the hour-long Forum assembly.

The weekly devotional will be held Friday rather than today. President Hugh B. Brown will preside at the assembly, and Howard W. Hunter will be the speaker. This change necessitates holding regular Friday 10 a.m. classes Thursday at 10 a.m.

Today's Turtle Trot competition will be held on the Wilkinson Center

West Patio. Five divisions will be featured in the event. Campus division includes all campus groups, clubs, student government, and athletic teams. All housing units, dorm floors, and off-campus housing units with at least 6 occupants will make up the Housing division.

Church division encompasses elders quorums, wards, and Relief Societies. Executive Division includes downtown businessmen, coaching staffs, and faculty staffs. Finally, the Open Division is open to any group with their own turtle of any size or kind.

FINALS

Each turtle clocking under one minute may advance to division finals. Then Division Finalists will compete for the Sweepstakes Trophy.

Under the direction of the Collegiate Athletic Association, men's field events will be staged at 4 p.m. in the Smith Fieldhouse, with such events as the high jump, shot put, and broad jump.

At the same hour, BYU women will compete in track and field events in the stadium. 50-yard-dash, softball throw, 220 relay, 3-legged race, long jump, and a 440-yard relay will round out the feminine roster. The competition will be sponsored by Sportswomen.

MEN'S TRACK

Men's track events will be held Wednesday at 4 p.m. Events include 100-yard dash, 800-yard dash, 220-yard dash, 1 mile race, 440-yard relay, and 800-yard relay.

The organization gaining the most total points will receive 100 points toward the Homecoming Supremacy Trophy. Second and third ranking organizations will garner 75 and 50 points respectively.

According to Orden Yost, field events chairman, "The track and field events will be the largest determinant toward the Supremacy Trophy."

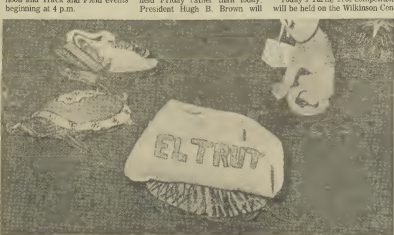

Pop and folk music will be on hand at noon today in the Wilkinson Center step-down lounge as a part of Homecoming day entertainment.

The Homecoming Parade will start Saturday at 9 a.m. Faculty are encouraged to submit names, ages, and abilities of any children desiring to participate in the parade to the Parade Chairman in 119 Wilkinson Center as soon as possible. Approximately 20 children, preferably able to play musical instruments, are needed to ride on floats.

'Rise And Shout' Nets $5,000

by Rinda Graves
Assistant News Editor

"Rise and Shout" was the cry. At the BYU studios, faculty, and friends did just that.

One year ago the record "Rise and Shout" was released, throbbing with the spirit, pep, memories, and sounds of BYU.

One week before its release an advertising executive heard the record, acknowledged its quality, but said it could never have a profit.

TOP UTAH SELLER

It shortly became the top seller LP record in Utah. Since that time nearly 50,000 copies of "Rise and Shout" have been sold, representing a gross of over $14,000.

Last week Cougar Club president John Hawkins presented a check for $5,000 to Academics Vice President Earl C. Crockett.

The $5,000 net profit from sales of the disc has been set up in a University endowment fund to be known as the Cougar Club Scholarship. In the fall of 1968 two scholarships will be awarded to two students—one each of the music and athletic departments—to be selected by those departments.

REQUESTS

"Rise and Shout" was produced as the result of many requests from faculty, students and alumni to have the sounds and songs of BYU put on record, according to Jim Wilson, record project chairman.

The record "gives students an opportunity to relive BYU events after they leave the campus, and maintains a stronger relationship between the alumni and the university," he said.

PROMOTING TOOL

Joseph T. Bentley, assistant administrator of Church Schools stated, "Rise and Shout" was one of our greatest tools for promoting the image and spirit of BYU throughout our country and throughout the world." Cougar Club sponsored and promoted the record. A Cappella Choir and Male Chorus, under the direction of Ralph Laycock, provided the vocal renditions included in the album.

Concert band, under the direction of Ralph Laycock, and Cougar Marching Band directed by Richard Ballou and Grant Eklington portrayed the spirited Cougar sounds instrumentally.

The 18 songs on the album are divided in three types. Traditional songs include "The Cougar Song," "The College Song," "Acapalco 1922," "WAC March," and "Fight Ye Cougars" are some of the pep songs. Memories are brought back with such numbers as "The Old Y Bell" and "On the Trail to the Y."

AUTHENTIC SOUNDS

Actual recordings of cougar growls, the Y Bell, and live cheers of basketball crowds at the Utah-BYU game two years ago add authentic excitement to the recording.

There are 1500 "Rise and Shout" records left in supply. Cougar Club is sponsoring a promotion to sell the remaining albums before Christmas.

Dissent . . . (Operation Abolition)

Editor:

Last Wednesday night I attended the YAF meeting at which was shown "Operation Abolition," a 7-year-old film produced by the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HUAC).

The major purposes of the film seemed to be (1) to show that the Communist Party of the U.S. had as one of its objectives the abolition of HUAC, (2) to suggest that clever Communist agents, trained in the tactics of civil insurrection, used innocent dupes, including college students, to demonstrate and riot against the legitimate and orderly processes of government, and (3) that such dupes were "tampering with treason."

CROWDS

I, like others, was disgusted with the crowd behavior shown in the film. However, to insure a more balanced view, I should like to suggest additional considerations to challenge the conclusions some might make from this presentation (1) that anyone who opposes the activities of HUAC is Communist, treasonable, or a dupe of the Communists, and (2) that HUAC operates in such a faultless manner that there is really no legitimate basis for objecting to it.

I agree with YAF that power may corrupt, and that too much concentration of power is not good. I believe that part of the genius of the American system is an elaborate set of checks and balances between the states and federal government, between the judiciary, the executive, and the legislative, between the various power groups in society (business, labor, farmers, etc.)

ABUSE POWER

I also believe that HUAC may abuse its power, and that individual citizens need to have protection against the violation of their constitutional rights if this happens. I believe that Congress should exercise self-restraint, but that other checks on its operation are a necessary safeguard.

As was the case with the late Senator Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.), HUAC operates under broad congressional immunities. Even though the abuses of McCarthy were virulent in the extreme the public was helpless to get him to cease his tactics until at last the Senate, under the leadership of Arthur V. Watkins (R-Utah), censured him and effectively stripped him of his power within that body.

Critics from diverse elements in American society have charged that HUAC, in many of its hearings, has used some of the same tactics as did McCarthy. Indeed, if the HUAC subcommittee which held the San Francisco hearings May 12-14, 1960 (events surrounding which were portrayed in the film) had used more defensible procedures, it is probable that most of the public support for it called upon to testify would have evaporated, and that the hearings would not have turned into such a perversion of the governmental process.

The House of Representatives, like the Senate, is extremely cautious in regulating the behavior of its members, as exemplified in the case of Adam Clayton Powell (D-N.Y.). Despite widespread dissatisfaction among the members of the House with HUAC, it is uncertain whether or whether the House will move to censure it.

STRANGE METHODS

Another approach to the regulations of HUAC is to contest its constitutionality and its methods in the courts. Consider the case of Dr. Jeremiah Stamler, as exemplified in the case of Adam Clayton Powell (D-N.Y.). Despite widespread dissatisfaction among the members of the House with HUAC, it is uncertain whether or whether the House will move to censure it.

Specifically, the Committee is charged with the release of the public names of subpoenaed witnesses in advance of the hearings, in violation of the Committee's own rules.

Refusal of executive sessions requested by defendants, in violation of Committee's own rules.

Refusal of cross examination. Lack of legitimate legislative purpose but rather exposure of witnesses to public defamation for the sake of exposure.

The use of derogatory, argumentative, insidious, leading questions by Committee counsel completely unsupported by evidence.

Representation of defense counsel. I alleged that even under these conditions no witness (as distinguished from Committee counsel) even mentioned Mrs. I. The only reference to Dr. Stamler's witness was an allegedly hearsay statement made by one of the Committee paid informants who voluntarily confessed that he did not know and had not met or seen, or had any contact whatsoever with Dr. Stamler.

SUCH FILMS

It is entirely appropriate for YAF a political action group, to sponsor films, and to promote the conservative cause they espouse. Could I voice a that YAF, as well as other such groups will temper their zealotry with recognition that there may be more than one way to interpret events and particularly in a university setting search for truth will not be blotted by an emotional viewing with all which tends to see all opposing views not only as wrong but also as traitorous and Communist.

GET OUT OF VIETNAM

Editor:

It looks as though the debates on Vietnam for this year are about to begin. We too feel it an insult, but even more, a tragedy that young men should die in vain. We suggest the U.S. withdraw and save its strength for situations that are morally justifiable.

Possible reasons for the rise to 46% of the population who oppose the war are either its length, or increased public understanding of the situation (i.e. Romey, to some extent). If people would read these books: Vietnam (Gottman), The War Heritage (Schlessinger), and Behind the Lines-Hanoi (Saltisbury), they might balance their picture of the situation.

There are a number of arguments against "crushing" Communism. First, we feel that the U.S. is NOT the policeman, lawgiver, or Mother of the world. If we go about trying to impose our will on the other 94% of mankind, in the name of "freedom," we are no better than the Communists themselves. Likewise, such indiscriminate action is in direct violation of the U.N. Charter (Art. 39 and 51) and every policy of international law.

In addition, Communism today is NOT the same monolithic force it was twenty years ago. There IS nationalistic Communism and somewhat independent Communism (Yugoslavia, Rumania, Albania and North Vietnam). The threat in S.E. Asia is primarily political, not militaristic as in Europe.

Finally, we ask: Are we able to "crush" Communism without flinching? Perhaps, by nuclear weapons it could be accomplished. Yet the fact of overkill and the termination of civilization are too frightening to be justified by anyone's doctrine. Let's change our policies from surgery to immunization.

Arraignment In Narcotics Incident

Three men were arraigned Monday afternoon in the Provo City Court after being picked up early Saturday morning in an alleged narcotics incident, according to BYU Security.

Two men were charged with narcotic possession and one with carnal knowledge. None of them are BYU students.

However, two 17 year old girls, both identified as BYU students, were apprehended in the same incident. They are being held in the Utah County Youth Home awaiting petitions to be filed in juvenile court.

Decisions Presented

By Roy Musick
Student Gov't Editor

The executive council offered unanimous support to a proposed "Intern Program" in last Thursday's council meeting.

The intern program will give interested students the opportunity to see student government and possibly find a place in it. Stuart Collyer, executive assistant to the president, presented the motion for the program.

Complimentary tickets for Homecoming were announced to be at a minimum, according to Ron Gosling chairman of the upcoming week. Approximately half as many complimentary tickets will be given out as compared to last year.

Several suggestions were made to Bob Fitch, vice president Athletics, for a date for the State game. However, no formal motion was made in the matter.

AWS was awarded $197 for the publishing of the newsletter, "Cathy Comes to the Leach," vice president Finance, lauded the funny quest "as the best we have yet."

A fund request from the polo team was tabled. Amount requested was $38.00 would allow our team to participate in the tournament atrado State University.

It was voted to cancel next week's executive council meeting because of business. Several members of the council will be there, it was explained.

HOUSE CUTS FOREIGN AID

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The House Appropriation Committee Monday slashed the administration's foreign aid program to the lowest spending level in the program's 19-year history.

The panel, citing the nation's "very serious fiscal situation," voted to cut aid spending from $2.9 billion to $2.2 billion for the 12 months that began last July 1. The money is almost certain to be upheld by the House, is $1 billion less than President Johnson asked.

SOVIET PARADE TO SHOW NEW MISSILES

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet Union plans to unveil a new missile during the biggest parade in Russian history, celebrating the 50th anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution, it was learned Monday.

The word about the new weapons in the Soviet Union's arsenal came as advance details were given out about Tuesday's parade of military might.

ISRAEL OFFERS 'OBJECTIVE' PEACE TERMS

LONDON (UPI)—Israel Monday offered the Arab nations "objectively reasonable peace terms" if they come to a difference table to negotiate a final settlement.

Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban told a news conference Israel will make "constructive and viable proposals" which will be "objectively reasonable" to reach a settlement with the neighboring Arab countries. He declined to spell out the Israeli peace terms in detail.

McNAMARA AUTHORIZES RIOT TROOPS

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara authorized the National Guard Monday to add 125,000 and 12,000 men to provide trained troops for riot control.

McNamara signed an order permitting the National Guard and the organized Army Reserves to exceed by 8 percent the total strength authorized for them by Congress. He authorized figures are 400,000 for the guard and 260,000 for the reserves.

SEGREGATIONIST LOSES LOUISIANA ELECTION

BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI)—Gov. John McKeithen, fresh from a lopsided victory over segregationist John R. R. Smith, said Monday the day of the racial extremist may be over in Dixie.

"I think it's a great day for Louisiana and a great day for the South," McKeithen said.

Supreme Court Refuses Hearing...

Dissenting Army Privates Lose Case

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court Monday denied a hearing to three Army privates who were jailed for their refusal to go to Vietnam to fight.

In a brief unsigned opinion, however, Justice William O. Douglas and Potter Stewart argued unsuccessfully that the Court should have accepted the case in order to see whether the Vietnam conflict constitutes war in the constitutional sense.

The three soldiers who brought the appeal are Dennis Mora, 26, James A. Johnson, 21, both of New York, and David A. Sarnas, 21, of Modesto, Calif. They are serving sentences at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan.

'NO JURISDICTION'

Douglas said there are past court decisions that indicate what is happening in Vietnam "is none of our (the Court's) business." But he said the three soldiers should be told why.

According to Douglas, the Court does not "sit as a committee of oversight or supervision. What resolutions the President asks and what the Congress provides are not our concern."

CONSTITUTIONAL QUESTION

But he and Stewart agreed "The large and deeply troubling questions" posed by U.S. involvement in Vietnam and the constitutional basis for action there will "not go away by simply refusing to hear the cases of three obscure Army privates."

The soldiers sued Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara and Army Secretary Stanley Reser to have the overseas orders declared illegal. Two lower courts threw the cases out of court.

Pre-Bolshevik Russian Ruler Notes USSR Freedom Trend

NEW YORK (UPI)—Alexander F. Kerensky, the ailing 66-year-old Russian Premier who was deposed 50 years ago by the Bolshevik Revolution, said Monday on the eve of the anniversary that "the movement toward freedom in Russia is as inevitable as it is irresistible."

"I'm glad to be making this statement today and not, let us say, five years ago because no one would have believed me then," said Kerensky, who is hospitalized at St. Luke's Hospital with a painful case of shingles.

"But the time has not come to abandon pessimism in our evaluation of trends in the Soviet Union," he said. "The basic trend is the thrust toward freedom, and this alone is sufficient cause for optimism."

Kerensky was head of the moderate provisional Russian government from July to November, 1917 after the February revolution toppled the Romanov Dynasty. The former lawyer said the time will come when the Russian people can breathe without fear, probably in this generation.

Air Force Pilots Down 2 MIGs With Extra Gun

WAGON (UPI)—An Air Force F4C Phantom crew with a home-made 100-mm. cannon gun mount on the belly of the plane shot down two communist MIGs that soared up challenge them in the skies over Laos Monday. The jet normally carries only missiles.

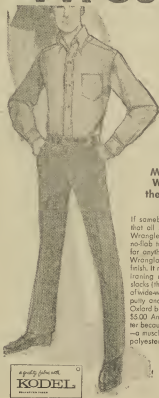

A third MIG was "probably" shot down by another warplane during the swirling dogfight that erupted. The American pilots blasted hundreds of tons of war supplies ed up since two major bridges in the area were bombed down a week.

The double MIG kill went to Capt. Darrell D. Simmonds, 33, Brown, Tex., and his co-pilot, 1st Lt. George H. McKinney, 24, Des Moines, Ala.

"It was the highlight of my life," Simmonds, an 11-month veteran of the war, said. It was what he had been hoping and praying for... a year," he said.

Simmonds said the third MIG was hit by Capt. William Lenz (somewhat unavailable) and was believed to have been shot down. The dogfight erupted as Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs slashed rough heavy anti-aircraft fire to bring 83 buildings in the massive a Thach warehouse complex at the edge of Gia Lam airbase at across the Red River from a heart of Hanoi.

ATHLETES' FOOTNOTES

Aggies Read The Papers

by Gary Wood
Sports Editor

"Stomp Hell Out Of BYU."

So blurted the banner headline of the Utah State University student newspaper last Friday in an exhortation aimed at the USU football team, and the Aggies evidently took it to heart.

They also "took it to" the Cougars.

Only once before as a sportswriter for this newspaper has this scribe been so disappointed in a BYU athletic team.

In 1965 an otherwise outstanding Cougar basketball team played very poorly during a two-game stand in Arizona in which the cagers blew both games and the conference title.

Coach Stan Watt's squad went on to win the NIT to cap off a 20-5 season.

That the Cougar gridders will display such comeback fiber and turn in a more-than-respectable 7-3 mark is our challenge to them.

The team that waxed a very strong Oregon State eleven and has played superlative football this fall is certainly capable of meeting that challenge.

The agony that accompanies defeat on the athletic field is magnified many-fold in the persons of wounded heroes such as Sid Frazier, Perry Rodrigue, Hank Mercado, and John Paterson.

Since Tommy Hudspeth made the BYU scene with his "hit and hustle" brand of ball, serious injuries have been almost non-existent.

This season, however, the Cougar team is experiencing its share of costly mishaps.

One has to feel greatly for the mental anguish of seniors Frazier and Rodrigue as they wind up their grid careers watching from the stands.

These two standout players are favorites among their teammates for their temperament and humor as well as for their all-out effort on the turf.

Frazier was Daily Universe Player of the Week in his first game as a sophomore and has received the honor twice more while Rodrigue, a Marine transfer, was tabbed following a great performance against New Mexico last season.

The two are missed for their willingness to put out on the battlefield.

Frazier, on the way to a game in Arizona last season, accidentally irritated a nastily torn fingernail.

Shrugging off a comment on it, he said: "It won't much matter once the game gets going. In a game I wouldn't even notice a broken leg if I had one."

Rodrigue, Frazier and the others can find some solace in joining ranks with a rooting section Coach Hudspeth has called "one of the greatest."

In fact, he called us after the Utah game and asked us to thank the student body for "the greatest demonstration of student support I've ever seen."

He went on to say: "I would like to have been able to tell them myself, but it would take all this season and a long time afterwards."

"Support like that makes a big difference to us and we certainly appreciate it."

The kegs are flying in the Wilkinson Center Bowling Alley. BYU's bowling team, defending champions of the Intermountain Bowling Conference, is preparing for its first conference match Nov. 18.

Following a tough three-week competition which involved 51 aspirants, 16 bowlers (8 male and 8 female) were chosen to compose the men's and women's teams.

AMATEUR STATUS

The teams will compete on an amateur basis. Big event of the year will be the Association of College Unions tournament Feb. 23-24, at Colorado State College in Greeley, Colo.

BYU's bowling squads will also compete in the Intermountain Bowling Conference with Utah State, Idaho State, University of Utah, Weber State and Ricks College.

An invitational meet will be held at BYU next March.

Members of the men's team are: Roy Barracough, Parker Owens, Ingolf Noto, Tom Cotton, Tyler Holst, Jerry Davis, Finn Christensen and Tom Towner.

Composing the female team are the following: Beverly Ensey, Karen Jensen, Marsha Skates, Barbara Anderson, Chris Brighten, Karen Blackham, Nora Kellet and Norma Walton.

A coach to assist the women's bowling team is being sought. Interested parties may contact Shadler Bown in 187 ELWC. Team practices are held every Thursday at 4:10 p.m.

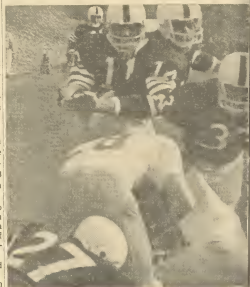

Captains of the bowling teams are Barracough and Skates. Barracough, a veteran around bowling lanes for the last 10 years, has a 190 average going for him, while Skates—girl's team captain—has a 160 average.

PING PONG

The table tennis team has also been organized and will begin its season Nov. 18 in the BYU Invitational. Composing the ping pong squad are Hyram Beckstead (captain), Dominan Ode, Gary Moler, the chess team, which co- Roy Emmett, Jeff Adams Gito of Al Kenap, president; Jim Parick and Earl Loveless, vice-pres-

Not Just Ticket Pushers...

Security's Role Vital To BYU

By Brian Robinson
Universe Feature Writer

"There's nothing worse than a badge-heavy cop," commented Captain Steven C. Nelson, head of the BYU Security Department.

"The Security officers we have in our department must and do exercise good judgment in carrying out their responsibilities," the Captain added.

Many students feel that our "Gestapo" Security Department excels only in handing out various parking and speeding tickets to help bolster the University and indirectly the Security funds. Contrary to popular belief, Security doesn't get a commission on the number of tickets issued. Tickets are issued because sometimes that is the only means of enforcing and maintaining the rules and regulations of BYU.

Well, then, what exactly does our Security do for us? First of all, Security plays its most important role as a protector of the students' safety. Second, University Standards must have evidence reports in determining what action should be brought against either student or non-student law offenders. Security is the chief investigator in most cases. Finally, Security is a back-up team for the local Police Department in cases requiring unusual assistance.

The Security team is made up of 20 officers and a secretarial staff. Utilizing modern crime fighting equipment such as a portable radar set, the detector, and complete chemical analysis facilities, Security attempts to provide the best protection of student welfare. An ambulance is on call 24 hours a day and manned by Security personnel, each having advanced first aid training.

GOOD DEEDS

BYU is one of the few universities known to have its own radio frequency for the sole use of the Security Department. Along with the usual dispatch facilities of a police force, portable units are frequently used in cases requiring mobile, on foot, action.

What has Security done recently to show its more than just an organized parking-violator apprehender? Consider the man standing fearlessly in sub-freezing morning or evening traffic attempting to avert the inevitable congestion problem.

The thorough investigation which was made concerning the purse-snatcher here on campus is another example of Security's dependability. And how about the University of Utah students who were prosecuted for defacing our bronze cougar, not to mention various walkways and walls? Many other investigations are made daily which never reach the public information sources.

Do you buy a shirt or a label?

If you want a good shirt, look for a good label. One that means the shirt is styled to last. With rolls, tapered waists, pleats in the right places. Like this Arrow "Cum Laude" Oxford. It's a woven blend of Dacron® polyester and cotton with skinny boxed stripes of green and blue. Button-down collar, tapered waist, long sleeves, Perma-Iron so it won't wrinkle. And "Sanitized-Plus." In checks, plaids, solids and stripes. All the things you look for in a shirt—for $7.00.

And in a good shirt you'll find a good label. The best labels come in our shirts. Arrow.

The A Cappella choir performs in concert Wednesday at 8:15 p.m. in the de Jong Concert Hall. Medieval music with music by Rachmaninoff and "Mass in G Minor" by Ralph Vaughan Williams are on the program.

A Cappella Sings Mass

A flavor of the medieval age is a portion of the A Cappella Choir Concert Nov. 8 at 8:15 p.m. in the de Jong Concert Hall of the Harris Fine Arts Center.

The choir is singing the "Mass in G Minor" by Ralph Vaughan Williams. Although the mass was first presented in 1922, many critics have called its style "mock medieval" and its format proves that theory.

"Mass in G Minor" is the Ordinary of the mass. This is the portion which is sung or recited on the occasion of every mass. It consists of the "Kyrie," "Gloria," "Credo," "Sanctus," "Benedictus qui venit," and "Agnus Dei."

The mass is arranged for a solo quartet and a double choir and although the framework is ancient, the effect of the music is very modern.

Williams believed that the mass music originally stemmed from a folk song ancestry and his music has faint reminiscences of that background.

First performed in the Westminster Cathedral under the direction of Sir Richard Terry, the mass revived the lagging trend in sacred music.

Artist Bureau

A new program to send cultural musical presentations from BYU has just been organized.

The Artist Bureau under the direction of Paul Pollei, professor of music, is preparing musical presentations to go to schools, churches, clubs or other organizations that may request such a program.

The Artist Bureau is divided into two areas, student and faculty. The faculty is qualified BYU professors and student performers will be selected by Prof. Pollei in an audition.

Prof. Pollei says there are many opportunities for student musicians. Interested persons should contact Prof. Pollei, E-543 HFAC.

Grant Oratorical Contest Set

Do you have an interest in public speaking? If so, the Heber J. Grant Oratorical Contest is registering its participants now.

The Heber J. Grant Oratorical Contest which is held annually in honor of the birthdate of the late President of the church will be held on November 28, at the devotional Assembly at the Smith Fieldhouse.

All regularly enrolled undergraduate students are eligible to participate.

The speeches must be original, 8-10 minutes long on some "faith-promoting subject." Participants must be prepared to submit manuscripts to the judges if requested.

Registration for the contest is being held in the Department of Speech and Dramatic Arts Office, D-581 HFAC, extension 2112. All participants must be registered by Friday, Nov. 10.

$$1. \sqrt{1 - \left(\frac{2}{3}\right)^2} = \sqrt{1 - \frac{4}{9}} = \frac{2}{3}$$

Knock it off, Lester, I'm trying to get some sleep.

$$2. \sqrt{\frac{3^2 - 2^2}{3^2}} = \dots$$

$$3. \frac{1}{3} \sqrt{3^2 - 2^2} = \frac{2}{3}$$

"Not all young Americans, in fact, not even a majority of us, sit in college classrooms, major in political science and see fit to protest that which our government does," the soldier wrote.

The State Department made public a portion of the letter Oct. 23 and said Rusk was so impressed with the message that he sent it to the President.

The department would not identify the letter writer or say when it was received.

SKITS-O-FRANTIC

Wednesday is the deadline for applications to be turned in for this year's Skits-O-Frantic competition. All clubs, wards, and other organizations are eligible to enter their original 10-minute skits to the theme of "Patriotic Pandemonium." Applications should be turned in to the Culture Office on the fourth floor of the Wilkinson Center. The written skits are due Nov. 15. Preliminary judging will be Dec. 4, and the seven winning skits will be presented to the student body in the ELWC ballrooms on Dec. 8.

Fifty internships in elementary education for the 1968-69 school year are now available.

To be eligible candidates must have a minimum GPA of 2.5, graduate by August 1969, and receive faculty recommendation.

Districts participating are Salt Lake City, Jordan, Alpine, Provo, Nepo, Tooele, and Weber County.

Internships will be for a full academic year except in Tooele where both full year and semester interns will be placed.

Applications are due in the office of Dr. Russell H. Bishop, Stein House (705 E. 1430 N.) or David O. McKay Bldg. Dr. Bishop's office hours are 1 to 5 Thursday, ext. 2552, or at times by appointment.
